

Dylan

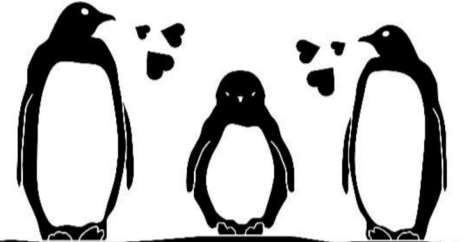

This is Dylan, a small penguin.

And these are Mom and Dad penguin.

They love their Dylan very much.

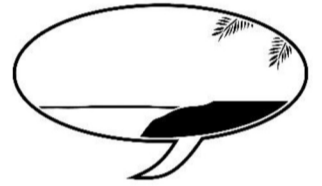

Dylan does not like to do his homework at all.

So one day he gets so fed up with it that he throws his book on the ice.

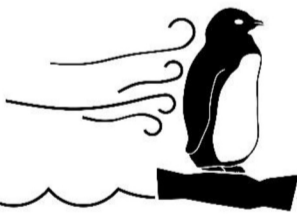

Maybe on the other side of the sea life is much better than it is here.

Dylan jumps on an ice floe and slowly drifts towards the open sea.

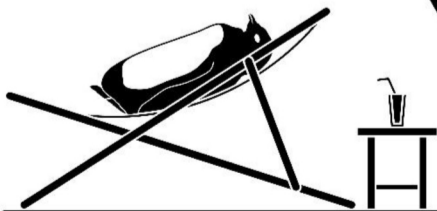

After a while, a strong wind starts blowing. His ice floe starts to wobble wildly.

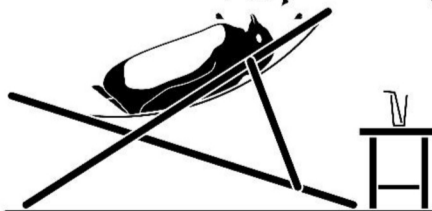

After a few days, a tropical island appears on the horizon.

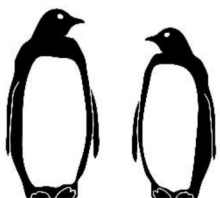

Dylan finds a beach chair and enjoys laying in the chair.

However, Dylan is not used to the heat.

Dylan starts to look for a cooler place on the island.
